April Activities & Events

I. Introduction

- Brief overview of the purpose of the presentation.
- Highlight the importance of community events in promoting literacy, outdoor activities, and cultural diversity.

II. Key Monthly Events

- Thousand Hills StoryWalk
  - Description: A walk through 1000 Hills State Park with a book reading along the Forest Lake Trail.
  - Objective: Promote literacy and outdoor activities.
- April Fools' Day
  - Date: April 1st
  - Activities: Practical jokes and fun.
  - Highlight: Check out an April Fools Book.
- Monarch Butterfly Migration
  - Date: April 1st
  - Importance: Understanding the long migration routes of monarch butterflies.

III. Weekly & Bi-Weekly Activities

- Bingo
  - Schedule: Tuesdays at 10:00 am and Saturday, April 19th at 1:30 pm.
- Storytime at SB40
  - Schedule: Wednesdays at 1:00 - 2:00 pm
  - Activities: Themed stories and crafts.
- Ukulele Sessions
  - Schedule: Mondays at 4:30-5:45 pm.
  - Objective: Music learning and enjoyment.

IV. Special Themed Days

- Pokemon Trading Card Day
  - Date: April 2nd
  - Activity: Trading card games for youth.
- Make Your Own Stuffie

- Date: April 12th
- Description: Create your own stuffed animal.
- Magic the Gathering
  - Dates: April 12th and 26th
  - Details: Card games for enthusiasts.
- Accio Fun Wizarding Event
  - Activities: Magical games and crafts for all ages.

V. Cultural & Educational Events

- Arbor Day and Earth Day at Thousand Hills
  - Date: April 25th
  - Activities: Nature stations and fishing opportunities.
- Diversity Festival at Ray Miller
  - Date: April 26th
  - Objective: Celebrate cultural diversity.
- Garden to Table
  - Date: April 30th
  - Activities: Spring cooking class and gardening session.

VI. Conclusion

- Encourage community participation.
- Emphasize the benefits of engaging in local events for personal growth and community bonding.

VII. Q&A Session

- Open the floor for any questions or discussions from the audience.

Images

- Include relevant images such as the monarch butterfly and cherry blossom to enhance the presentation.
-